Dedication

This spring not only the seniors are leaving Redford Union; Mr. Ward Estes, principal since 1953, is retiring after seventeen years of service in the Redford Union Schools.

Mr. Estes, who has a Bachelor's degree from Michigan State and a Master's from the University of Michigan, came to Redford Union in 1935 as a teacher and football coach. He was principal in June, 1940, when he was recalled for service in World War II.

During his five years of active service, he held many administrative posts, closing his career as an intelligence officer with the rank of Major. When he retired from the reserves in 1960, he held the rank of Lt. Colonel.

In 1953, he returned to R.U. as principal, a position he has held to the present. To honor his years of service and guidance, the 1965 BLUE and GOLD is dedicated as a lasting tribute to Mr. Estes.

CLASS HISTORY

The class of '65 came to Redford Union as shy, timid sophomores in 1962. The highlights of that year were the Sadie Hawkins Dance and the one and only float, "Three Coins in a Fountain," which received honorable mention.

Fully settled into school life by their Junior year, the class of '65 sponsored after-game dances. The beautiful Prom at Glen Oaks Country Club, "Moonlight and Roses," was planned all year by the Junior Class and presented on June 12, 1964. Points for the Senior trip were earned by selling pop and chips at football and basketball games.

Finally the long-awaited Senior year arrived. The fall season, with Homecoming and the Powderpuff game, was over before anyone realized it. The winter, too, with its exciting sports season, went all too quickly and spring arrived, bringing the memorable Senior Trip to Washington.

With the honoring of Seniors at Class Day, the Prom that night at Lovett Hall, and Commencement, the Panorama of school life was completed.

Graduation, however, is only the introduction to a much larger Panorama—the Panorama of life.

For the last time students leave the classrooms, walk through the halls, and open the door--entering the Panorama of Life.

Sue,
 So one of the funniest girls in the Senior class of '65
 Thanks for making lunch so much fun.
 Don't get mad when you think of the times I called you bratty, you know I was only kidding. Good luck in years to come and always remember

Jim Sweeney
 "65"

Sue-

I know we won't be seeing much of each other after graduation. I hope you won't forget some of the things we talked about.
 Just in case you should become discouraged, Sue, remember there are people who care enough about you - who will be thinking of you. Send me a line up to MSU & let me know how great things are going for you - Sincerely, Rickton's Linda

To Sue, the girl with a great sense of humor. It's been fun this year. Best wishes
 Jerry
 '65

Don't forget to write me
 when you get to
 MSU
 I'll be waiting for you Sue

 Remember I am always around whenever I need a good laugh
 or a good cry
